Æther

re:natura

Following conceptual and material excursions, re:natura #04 – Æther is taking a deep breath and welcomes you to get inspired by the invisible.

For our new thematic sound compilation, we invite (sound) artists, poets, experimental musicians and radiophonic sound designers to share their unique perspectives on the environment transporting all things audible. Associative, descriptive as well as analytical concepts are welcome.

Think about air as a medium to nature and culture alike: distributing gas, temperature, humidity as well as sound and electromagnetic waves and – of course – visible light.

OPEN CALL

– submission form –

Submissions are due Sunday June 30, 2024

Please adhere to our submission notes

– only entries on the google form will be accepted!

After a subsequent review, a selection of up to 7 titles will be compiled and published digitally on our Bandcamp website. Minimum compensation for each track accepted for the compilation: 100 € (depending on funding)

If you have any questions about our project or your submission, please contact label.re.natura@gmail.com
